In the event of the objection not being sustained the deposit will be forfeited, but should the objection be sustained the Club objected against shall be required to refund same through the Secretary of the Association previous to the tie being played. No protest will be entertained after a match as to the privacy of a ground provided there has been sufficient time to enable Clubs to take advantage of this Rule. Drawing the Ties

11 (a) The Committee may, if they so desire, prior to drawing the first round, select by ballot or otherwise, a number not exceeding seven from the Clubs entered for the Competition, and shall place the names of the remaining Clubs in one lot, or lots, according to their districts, and draw them in couples. These couples shall compete against each other, and the names of the winning Clubs shall be placed in a lot, or lots, drawn in couples and shall compete as in the first tie, and so on until such tie as the Committee may decide upon. The Committee shall then place the remaining Clubs together with those selected (if any), in a lot, or lots, and draw them in couples in the manner aforesaid, whose couples shall compete until the Final be played, but byes may be given so that four Clubs shall compete in the Semi-Finals.

(b) In the event of a Club getting a Bye in any of the drawings, the Committee, at a subsequent drawing, shall first draw a Club to play against it from the lot, the two shall again be put in the ballot box and drawn, and the first Club drawn shall have the choice of ground. Any Club refusing or failing to play the Club against which it has been drawn on the date fixed by the Committee, and without sufficient reason for so doing, shall be adjudged to have lost the match and otherwise dealt with as the Committee may determine, except in the case of a Club being ordered to play a Cup Tie Match of the Irish Football Association on such date. In the event of neither Club having private ground, the first drawn must procure one. Postponed or abandoned games cannot be played on a Saturday, except in the case of Semi-Final or Final Ties. In the case of protested ties, or replays of same, the Committee shall decide the dates and venues. In all other cases the Committee shall decide which team shall change. The colours of the Club shall be taken to be the colours of the shirt or jersey as registered with the Association. A goalkeeper must wear a shirt or jersey of different colour, provided that said shirt or jersey is of a colour distinctive from that of his opponents. If the scores are still level at the end of extra time, the tie shall be decided by the taking of kicks from the penalty mark in accordance with the conditions approved by the International F.A.
